

The Photocopy Machine

Your hairdo looks nice, you're like a princess!

You're so pretty!

Thank you.

You came first in class
again. You're so smart!

* Beep! *
Photocopying
10 copies.

Wow, you have the latest model of shoes!

Have you seen his house? It's enormous!

Wow, she has so many friends. Look at the number of likes!

She must be really popular!

* Beep! *
Photocopying is complete.

Seems like everyone has
their own strengths.
What about me...?

Look at my artwork!
I have my own strengths too. I am not just a photocopy
of someone else.
Going to give these copies as gifts!

Be yourself.
Because you are enough.

DISCUSS WITH ME!

1. What are 3 things that you appreciate about who you are?
2. What are 2 things you have that you want to start to be more grateful for?
3. What is 1 thing that your friends have that is okay for you not to have?

LET'S BE HEROES!

Prepare your camera because it's time for a jump shot!

Set up a self-timer or ask someone to take a picture of you. Are you ready?

Jump as high as you can while doing your favourite pose!

NICE SHOT!

You don't have to jump as high as others.
You don't have to pose the same as others.

That picture you just took is already amazing.
